Charity is a concept which dates back to Biblical times, when helping the poor was something that rich people basically did to make themselves feel good. Social work has its roots in charity, as it originally began around the time of the industrial revolution when there were many poor people and society was seeking a way of dealing with the poor and social problems. Although social work began as charity work, it has expanded a lot and needs to be seen from a completely different perspective.

Modern-day social work deals not only with poverty and the subsequent problems, but also with the problems arising from various types of "social fear" ("social phobias") and discrimination such as sexism, racism, and discrimination against an individual due to his age, or mental or physical disabilities. Social workers deal with the consequences of these discriminations as well as consequences that arise from sexual abuse, drug abuse, and various other problems.

Social work provides an important service to society. Individuals and families in need of help are the focus of it, and are referred to as clients. Social workers help clients live a productive life in their own community. In order to reach this goal, they often enlist the assistance of family members, relatives, local religious leaders, and other influential members of the community. Although institutionalization may be necessary at times, it is a temporary solution. Social workers usually serve in the front line, and reach out to the clients soon after problems occur. The goal is to help clients return to normal life in a natural setting.

21. The charity originally means to _____.
 - A. help the poor which makes the rich feel good
 - B. help clients return to normal life
 - C. serve the whole society
22. When does social work begin?
 - A. Around the time of the industrial revolution.
 - B. Biblical times.
 - C. Modern time.
23. Modern-day social work deals with the following problems except _____?
 - A. poverty
 - B. racism
 - C. education
24. In order to help clients live a productive life, social workers can turn to the assistance of _____.
 - A. government
 - B. family members
 - C. businessmen
25. Which statement about social work is NOT True?
 - A. Social work roots from charity.
 - B. Social work deals not only with poverty and the subsequent problems, but also with various social fear and discrimination.
 - C. Social work is that the rich people want to help the poor people.

26—30 题:请根据对话内容判断给出的语句是否正确,正确的写“T”,错误的写“F”,并将答案写在答题纸上。

Liu Hui and Molly are discussing the issue of educational quality at a workshop.

Liu Hui: Hi, Molly. Today's topic is educational quality. First, what does educational quality mean to you?

Molly: As far as I'm concerned, quality education means good learning standards in educational institutions. So, educational quality ensures a desirable outcome for learners.

Liu Hui: Sounds like after some serious thinking. However, many definitions of quality in education exist, testifying to the complexity and multifaceted nature of the concept.

Molly: Definitely, establishing a contextualized understanding of quality means including relevant stakeholders. Key stakeholders often hold different views and meanings of educational quality.

Liu Hui: There are many prestigious universities in the US. They all provide high-quality education. But some universities aren't known for their quality. It's hard to imagine the gap.

Molly: Yes, in the US the quality in higher education is quite mixed. Universities like Harvard, Yale, MIT, etc, you know, are well-known all over the world. However, there are some institutions providing poor education, so called "diploma mills".

Liu Hui: In China, we have similar issues in educational quality. Some universities pay more attention to profits instead of quality.

Molly: How to improve educational quality is an international issue. But, solutions are grounded in values, cultures and traditions and may be specific to a given nation as well.

26. Molly thinks that educational quality ensures a satisfactory outcome for learners.

27. Liu Hui disagrees with Molly on the meaning of education quality.

28. All universities in the US offer high-quality education.

29. Diploma mills cannot provide high-quality education.

30. In China, there isn't any diploma mill.
